Young Historians Award 2014

The New Zealand History Teachers' Association and the New Zealand Historical Association Awards for 2014

This year the marking of the Young Historians' Award was undertaken by the Otago History Teachers' Association.

The marking panel were very impressed with the quality of the work submitted this year and feel that the awards are richly deserved by the students. NZHTA also wishes to acknowledge the effort that the teachers are making with regards internal assessment, the quality of student work is very impressive and a lot of this is due to teacher advice.

Placing's:

Year 13

- 1st Arabella Pullon, Otago Girls' High School, Ashburn Hall: A window into history
- 2nd Esther Liddle, Tauranga Girls' College, Gateway to Tauranga: Gate Pa and Beyond
- 3rd Samuel Coad, Hutt International Boy's School, New Zealand's Military Heritage

- 2nd Rejoice Lien, Otago Girls' High School, Black Saturday, Samoa
- 3rd Jessica Ryan, Taieri College, The Wahine Disaster

All students' who entered this are to be congratulated as the standard of work was very high. It is to be remembered that the marking was based on the standards, and the entries were marked to these.

A big thank you must also be given to all teachers who have worked so hard to get the standard of student work to this level, and we look forward to seeing all the marvellous work your students are producing again next year.

Kind regards,

Graeme Ball and Lara Hearn-Rollo
